Historical Note

Thomas Poore was born on July 19, 1732 to Thomas and Mary (Adams) Poore in Andover, Mass. In 1757 he married Phebe Osgood (1733-1797), also of Andover, in 1757 and they had seven children: Mary, Hannah, Phebe, Stephen, Enoch, Caleb, and Thomas. Thomas Poore owned a significant amount of land in Methuen and Andover, MA, much of which would later become part of Lawrence, MA. He was a captain in the French and Indian War, and commanded a company that marched from Andover to Cambridge on April 19, 1775. He later became a major and then colonel, and served in the Revolutionary War. When he died on September 24, 1804 in Methuen he gave a significant amount of land to his children.

Joshua Buswell, of Methuen, MA, enlisted into the Second Brigade and Second Division of the Fifth Regiment of Infantry of the Militia of Massachusetts in 1810. In 1813, Buswell was appointed as a Lieutenant of the Fifth Regiment and the following year he was promoted to Captain. Joseph Edward Buswell (1843-1923), also from Methuen, enlisted into Company B of the 14th Regiment of Massachusetts Volunteers Heavy Artillery in 1861 when he was 19 years old. He was soon promoted to 1st Sergeant and then 2nd Lieutenant in 1862. Joseph Buswell married Julia Merrill (1840-1916), daughter of Washington Merrill (1810-1878) and Abiah Gile Kelley (1808-1848) and sister of Moses Merrill (1833-1902). Bernard Clinton (B. Clinton) Buswell (1876-1935) was the son of Julia and Joseph Buswell. Julia and Joseph were married on May 1, 1865.

Washington Merrill married Abiah Kelley on October 21, 1832 and after her death in 1848 he married Lydia Baldwin (1827-1859). Merrill owned much land throughout Lawrence and Methuen, including land along the county road from Lawrence, MA to Salem, NH.

B. Clinton Buswell worked in a clothier, went to school at Hickox’s Shorthand School, assisted in the arrangement of the Bureau of Commerce and Industries in the John Hancock Building, a stenographer at Fayerweather and Laden and National Rolling Screen Co. of Boston.

It is unclear how the Merrill and Buswell families are connected to the Poor family.
